

HEREFORDSHIRE LIFE THROUGH A LENS PROJECT - RELEASE FORM

A media and oral history project about the social history of Herefordshire, inspired by the extensive and newly accessible photographic archive from the Derek Evans Studio. The project will result in a number of touring films, exhibitions, an accompanying suite of child led films, education packs (for primary and secondary schools) and a media-rich website. The project is funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund and others.

I agree/allow my child* to contribute to and participate in the Project, the nature and the content of which has been fully explained to me, I hereby consent to the video and/or audio recording of my contribution.

I give my consent to allow the interview and recorded images to be used by Catcher Media Social, project partners and funders for research, publication, display, broadcasting, and educational purposes, including the internet. In addition I understand that my/my child's* interview and other related materials may be put into a public archive where it can be accessed by third parties but may not be used by them for commercial purposes.

I understand that Catcher Media Social will keep a record of my contact details, but will not pass these details on to any third party without my permission. They may use my details to contact me about events relating directly to my contribution.

If you have any concerns or would like to place any conditions on access and/or use of your interview please discuss this with us and use the space overleaf to state them.
